3. MEMBER WELCOME/INTRODUCTIONS

The members introduced themselves.

4. REVIEW

a. Committee Purpose (Resolution)

Co-Chairperson Cargie summarized the resolution that established the Committee and stated the Committee needs to identify the problem, come up with a plan, complete a community survey, and hold at least one community forum. He stated he hoped the members anticipated that homework is involved, which is necessary to do a good job. He expressed trust in the Committee that while this can be a heated issue, the members can disagree without being disagreeable.

b. Expectations

Co-Chairperson Henek discussed the expectations of the Committee. She explained that the reason for the Committee is to help identify the problems residents are seeing and other issues related to deer. She stated the solution is not black and white – cull or not cull. She noted a holistic approach and better education are needed. She clarified that if the Village pursues culling, the Forest Preserves would have to submit the application to the Illinois Department of Natural Resources, meaning their application would have to be based on damage to the Forest Preserves' property. Co-Chairperson Henek explained that establishing benchmarks will be important to evaluate what success looks like. She acknowledged there are questions like what happens if residents are not experiencing the same number of issues after a few years, and how tax dollars will be utilized. She stressed the importance of designing a good survey and encouraging participation. Regarding research, Co-Chairperson Henek suggested the members break down into sub-groups to more easily manage the level of work. Finally, she asked the Committee to reflect on how deer management can be solved as a community and what makes the most sense economically and emotionally.

c. Open Meetings Act

Co-Chairperson Cargie explained the implications of being subject to the Illinois Open Meetings Act and stated they will be voting on everything as a Committee. In response to questions from the other members about the OMA, he stated four members or fewer can meet without violating the Act and a quorum is required for the Committee to take actions. He explained the rules about participating telephonically.

Ms. Armstrong made a motion, seconded by Mr. Roeger to allow Joel Lueking to participate telephonically. All ayes. Motion passes.

Roll call:

Ayes: Co-Chairperson Patty Henek, Co-Chairperson Tom Cargie, Laurie Gillard, Katharine Christmas, Annette Madden, John Roeger, Cathleen Hughes, Dan Hollenbach,
Absent: Ingrid Liu, John Flynn, Dawn Mizgala, Ronald Lemar
Nays: None
Motion Passes.

Mr. Lueking introduced himself.

5. RESOURCE MATERIALS

Co-Chairperson Henek discussed resources the Committee could use for research, including the Community Deer Advisor site through Cornell University and the Nature Conservancy, and the Humane Society, which identifies alternative solutions to culling. She stated they would ask the members when researching options to consider cost and whether they are in fact effective.

In response to a question from Ms. Gillard about needing data, Co-Chairperson Cargie stated the Resolution charges the Committee with gathering data such as whether there is a documented increase in the number of deer.

Co-Chairperson Henek stated focusing on the number of deer is not recommended. She explained that the survey will show what issues people are experiencing and the tolerance level of deer.

The Committee members briefly discussed data collection, potential options such as increased signage and lighting along Thatcher, and taking a proactive vs. reactive approach related to car accidents. The Committee also discussed the need for a basis for decision making and baseline data.

Co-Chairperson Cargie explained that the Forest Preserves has data related to habitat concerns that they will use to justify seeking permits, whereas the Village's concerns are related to car accidents and property damage. The Committee members discussed what kind of data the Forest Preserves has. The Co-Chairs confirmed that there is no documented case of chronic wasting disease for deer in Cook County and that the number and types of ticks are monitored. There was some discussion that Lyme disease would be part of the Committee's research and education efforts. Co-Chairperson Cargie stated that Tim Preuss from the Illinois Department of Natural Resources can be available for meetings.

In response to a question from Ms. Madden about responsibility of deer, Co-Chairperson Cargie explained that the State owns the deer, the Forest Preserves owns the land, and Village residents live next to the land. He stated the Forest Preserves would therefore have to ask permission from the State. Though the Forest Preserves does have its own culling programs, Co-Chairperson Cargie clarified that the Village would have to pay for one here because this is not an area designated for that type of program.

The Committee members discussed the process, and Co-Chairperson Henek stated it would depend on what they do. She stated that there are more immediate options such as signage but that education will be key if the Village chooses to cull. Co-Chairperson Cargie further explained that the Village has little control over the culling, including how many deer could be culled. He noted that the Village does control things like signage.

In response to a question about deer complaints, the Co-Chairs explained that Staff is being more rigorous about compiling this information, including the number of instances where Public Works have picked up dead deer. They emphasized that residents should call to report every deer incident, even if there was no car accident.

The Committee discussed the timeline of their work, and Co-Chairperson Cargie stated the goal is to have the survey out at the beginning of the summer. He noted that the report to the Village Board is due September 30, and that the Committee can make recommendations but ultimately the Village Board would take final action.

Co-Chairperson Henek encouraged the members to read through the information before the next meeting and emphasized the importance of the survey. She reiterated that the Committee's recommendations, especially if they involve spending money, will have to go to the Village Board.

6. COMMUNITY SURVEY

Co-Chairperson Henek encouraged the members to review the links provided and start thinking about the survey. The Committee discussed the challenges of getting survey responses and the possibility of including survey information in various mailings. They also discussed breaking up into subcommittees.

7. NEXT MEETING

The Committee came to a consensus to hold the next meeting on April 1, 2020.

8. ADJOURNMENT

Mr. Hollenbach made a motion, seconded by Mr. Askold to adjourn the Deer Management Ad Hoc Committee meeting at 8:42 p.m.

Essential Components of Survey Development and Implementation

Introduction

The theory of Social Exchange forms the basis for collecting social data via mail or telephone surveys and personal interviews. The premise of Social Exchange Theory states that an individual will participate in the survey if he or she perceives some benefit compared to the cost of participating. In our surveys, we are attempting to show participants that the benefit to returning the questionnaire is their contribution to improving the quality of wildlife management and hunting in Illinois. At the same time, we seek to minimize the effort the individual must expend, thus creating a positive balance of benefit toward cost. Respondents must also have trust in the survey administrator and see the agency as credible.

Questionnaire development is a science. Usually, most people not trained in social science research feel that questionnaire design is fairly simple: just write down a bunch of questions and wait for the responses. Nothing could be further from the truth.

The main objectives of the survey are

- a.) optimize response (both for the survey as a whole and individual items)
- b.) provide usable data
- c.) reduce error

Here are a few points to be considered before any survey can be undertaken.

1. "What is it we need to know?"

The survey must ask the right questions. Questions must be valid (address topic concerned), reliable (elicit same response from participants), and written in a clear, concise manner that is not intimidating to the participant. An important point to consider is the "ink to information ratio". Every word must be essential to the question. This stage takes a great deal of thought, because we don't get second chances to do a survey of the same group of people.

2. How do we ask the questions?

Not only do we have to ask the right questions, but they must be answered in the proper manner. This is extremely important. The way we ask the question will determine the type of data we receive. Data are of 2 main types: categorical and continuous. Categorical data are what we see most often in human dimensions research and are of 3 types: nominal, ordinal, or interval. Nominal data name "things" and do not impart a level of importance from one "name" to another. Examples of nominal data are occupation, place of residence (urban, rural), type of license purchased, and game species hunted.

Ordinal data arise from ordered responses. Rankings, rating scale (poor to excellent), or attitude scales (strongly agree to strongly disagree) are examples of ordered categories. Continuous data can also be made into categorical data. For example, hunting effort (measured by number of days afield) could be ordered into “Low”, “Medium”, or “High” categories.

The most often used examples of interval data include education and income. Because hunters tend to “round up” their estimates of game harvested and days afield (known as “digit preference”), it’s best to put questions pertaining to days spent hunting and game harvested into interval formats to avoid this problem. As a general rule, questions relating to continuous data should be formatted to provide intervals of responses in the questionnaire. For one reason, they are easier for the respondent to answer; second, they avoid the problem of digit preference and reduce recall error; and third, questions pertaining to sensitive issues (such as income) can be answered without revealing the actual answer.

The way we ask questions determines how we can analyze the data. The data are only as good as the questions we ask.

3. Question Order

Knowing what questions you want to ask and how to ask them is only part of the whole picture. Question order will determine who continues with the remainder of the questionnaire. If we send a hard-hitting cover letter telling a hunter we really need his input on an important issue, we can’t start off with questions asking him how many years he’s been hunting or what license he bought last year. We have to get right into the meat of the issue at once.

Another problem that frequently occurs is grouping items. Questions related to the same issue should not be grouped together. This is especially true of attitudinal questions. When the questions are grouped together, we have set the participant up for patterned responses. Some will try to “figure out” the questionnaire and may alter their responses accordingly.

4. Questionnaire Design

The issue of questionnaire design has been studied extensively. Layout, paper color, use of graphics, print size and font have been found to effect item response and overall rate of return.

Our primary objective in developing survey questionnaires is to obtain as many complete, unbiased questionnaires as possible. A well-developed questionnaire mailed through first-class postage, followed by a postcard reminder/thank you will improve our response rate and increase the validity of our survey research.

In conjunction with the Illinois Department of Natural Resources, the Village monitors the deer population in the community in order to minimize the safety hazards and damage to residential property. Residents are asked to fill out the attached brief survey.

Northbrook!

November/December 2007

Dear Residents and Business Community;

As Veterans Days is approaching, I ask that all of us please remember and honor the brave men and women who have served and are serving in our military and those who have given the ultimate sacrifice for our country to preserve our rights and freedoms. Please join the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars on Saturday, November 10 for the Veterans Day service. See detailed information on page XX.

The holidays are just around the corner and many of us attend parties, both personal and from work. Please be careful. Don't drink and drive! Lets save lives and the life you save may be your own!!! November is Drug and Alcohol Awareness month and our local organization, Northbrook Citizens for Drug and Alcohol Awareness will be sponsoring a variety of activities. I support their continuing efforts and encourage you to do the same. Please see page XX for more information.

Many things are happening in Northbrook. The Center of the Northshore, on the corner of Dundee Rd. and Skokie Blvd., continues to work diligently toward its construction permits. They report they have a lot of exciting stores and restaurants signing on. When they are official, we look forward to letting you know who they are and when they will open. Meadow Ridge, near Techny and Founders Roads, is also moving rapidly and we are told that they have already sold over 50% of the town homes. Starbucks and Potbelly's near the southwest corner of Dundee and Skokie are getting ready to open. Willow Festival, at the corner of Willow and Waukegan Roads, continues to open more stores and restaurants. The Sheraton Hotel at Willow Festival is under construction. In addition, I am pleased to announce that after pursuing them for almost two years, Portillo's is coming to Willow Festival. I have had numerous conversations and a dinner with Mr. Dick Portillo, Chairman and Founder of Portillo's restaurants and he is very excited about building an establishment in Northbrook. Besides being able to eat in the facility, they will apply for a drive thru and are planning an outdoor dining area. I have been asked by numerous residents and businesses if this was possible and we did it !!!!

Many of you have heard that 41 North has lost it lease, both staff and myself tried to find 41 North a new location in town, however due to their time constraints this was to no avail. They are moving to a new location in Highland Park. All of us in Northbrook will miss them and we wish them lots of success in our neighboring town.

Several new stores are planned to open in downtown Northbrook and the Gerson Office Building is well on its way to completion. They are planning a small restaurant and pastry shop on the first floor.

C&D Recycling has opened its doors; they are a recycling center for construction and demolition material and can recycle over 90% of a teardown home. They are working with the Village and getting the necessary permits so they can provide containers for our residents to drop off electronics, batteries and fluorescent bulbs. When this becomes available we will notify all of you. This is a great addition to our Village and a great way to help us do our part for a greener environment.

There are many more exciting plans that have been presented to the Village and as they become reality, we will be happy to share them with everyone. It has been an exciting couple of years in Northbrook and I hope to continue the pace.

A major portion of the funds that run the Village comes from sales taxes. So when you shop and dine this holiday season, please stay local and support our many fine businesses and new restaurants, and the Village!

Have a safe, happy and healthy holiday season and a Happy New Year.

Remember Our Veterans and Those Currently Serving

Please attend this year's Veterans Memorial Service at Northbrook Jr. High, 1475 Maple Ave., on Saturday, Nov. 10, at 10:30am.

(Veteran's Day is officially on Sun., Nov. 11)

The American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars are jointly sponsoring this year's Annual Veterans Day Memorial Service. So gather the family, your friends and neighbors and plan to attend this special brief service complete with Color Guard and Rifle Salute!

The Veterans of Northbrook encourage everyone in the community, especially the young people, to attend the ceremony and take the time to honor our veterans and those currently serving. All are invited to assemble at Northbrook Jr. High in the gymnasium on Saturday, November 10, at 10:30am for the ceremony. Immediately following the ceremony, at the flagpole in front of the school, the American Legion and the VFW will have a Color Guard and Rifle Salute for recognition of deceased veterans of all wars and military actions. Take advantage of this opportunity to thank a veteran! ❁

Drug & Alcohol Awareness Month

Northbrook Citizens for Drug and Alcohol Awareness (NCDA) and the Northbrook schools are sponsoring Northbrook's Alcohol and Other Drug Awareness Month during November. Throughout the month, various sectors of the community, including the Park District, Schools, Northbrook Library, NCTV, and the Northbrook Star, will be participating in prevention activities. Prevention programs across the nation have made great strides in reducing substance abuse, but according to the latest findings, we cannot stop there. It is important to market the anti-drug message to each new generation. For more information, call the NCDA at 847 272-7870 or visit the Northbrook Library for their Awareness Month Resource Bibliography. ❁

Friday Service Customers: pick-up will be Saturday.

Christmas & New Year's Day Refuse Schedule

Your regular pick-up day is delayed by one day both holiday weeks. Holiday trees will be picked up between Jan. 2 through 12 based on recycling day.

Last Chance for Regular Yard Waste Pick-up!

Friday, December 1

Customers must collect yard waste in approved biodegradable paper bags and affix a sticker to the bag or designated "yard waste" can denoting that the collection fee has been paid. Place the bags or cans at the curb for pick-up.

A Reminder from Veolia

Pick-up times vary from week to week. It is essential to have items ready for pick-up by 6:30am. ❁

Is Your Refuse Can Safe?

Residents can use up to three 32-gallon capacity cans, up to 50 pounds each per pick-up. Containers larger than 32-gallons/50 lbs. create an unsafe situation for the residential refuse collectors. Residents without "conforming containers" will be notified about meeting the standards in effort to keep the collectors safe from injury due to ergonomic and weight concerns. Your cooperation is appreciated and required by the Village contract that governs this service. Any questions, call 847 272-4145. ❁

Are You Ready to Vote in the February 5th Primary Election?

Make Sure You're Registered to Vote!

If you change your name or move, even within the town or neighborhood, you must be registered to vote from the address where you are living. You can be turned away at the polling place if you are not properly registered.

For the upcoming February 5 Primary Election, the last day for Regular Voter Registration is Tuesday., January 8, 2008. There are two convenient methods of registering:

▶ By Mail – Request an application form from the Cook County Clerk's office and mail it back postmarked no later than January 8, 2008.

▶ In Person – Visit one of the Cook County's six locations, the Northbrook Village Hall, or an Illinois Secretary of State Drivers License Facility.

The Village Hall is open for registration of voters from 8:30am to 4:30pm, Monday-Friday. Bring two forms of identification, one showing your current address. If you wish to check your registration, call 312 603-0906 or go on-line at www.voterinfonet.com

Registration is open year round except: During the 27-day period just prior to an election and during the 2-day period after each election. However, a new law called "grace-period registration and voting" extends the regular registration deadline by 14 days, allowing voters to register to vote up to two weeks before an election. As a result, there are new guidelines that determine when and where you can vote if you sign up during that time. To obtain forms or more information on grace-period registration and voting, contact the Cook County Clerk's Office at 312 603-0906. ❁

Northbrook Wildlife Survey

If you reside in an area of the Village of Northbrook that is inhabited by deer or have been impacted by deer in some way, please complete this survey.

The Village of Northbrook is adjacent to several Forest Preserve areas that provide a natural habitat for wildlife. Our well-developed office parks and residential subdivisions often include ponds, waterways, open areas and lush landscaping that encourage wildlife to settle. Some of our parks are planted as natural prairie restoration sites, also welcoming certain species of wildlife.

The Village of Northbrook has recognized that the ecological carrying capacities of the land must be considered in facilitating these areas and maintaining a balance for both our residents and our wildlife.

In 1991, the Village Board of Trustees passed a resolution urging the Illinois Department of Conservation (IDOC) to develop and coordinate a program which will keep the deer population of Cook County in ecological balance with the available food supply.

In 1995, in an effort to reduce damage and accidents, while providing a healthy environment for all, the Village applied to IDOC for its first Deer Population Control Permit. The Village's concerns were based on numerous deer sightings within the Village limits (not including Forest Preserve property), property damage and motor vehicle vs. deer accidents. Many residents responded to the first Deer Survey included in the September 1995 Northbrook! Newsletter which provided supporting documentation for this program. Subsequent surveys have continued throughout the years to provide updated information and support for additional Deer Population Control Permits.

The Deer Population Control Program must be justified each year based on current statistics. There are some areas in the Village where we have made a positive impact on the ecological carrying capacity of the land, however, in order to continue to monitor deer activity and provide support in other areas of the Village, we again are asking for your input. Your response is CONFIDENTIAL, but please include your name, address and phone number so that we may properly locate specific areas of activity and can contact you if additional information is required. Your assistance and prompt response in completing the survey is appreciated. Surveys are due by December 15, 2007.

NORTHBROOK IS READY!.. SO LET IT SNOW, LET IT SNOW, LET IT SNOW!

When a Storm Hits Northbrook...

Our Public Works Department goes into full gear to clear over 500 miles of roadway in Northbrook! A typical snow removal operation begins with seven or more salt trucks spreading de-icing materials on main and secondary streets. Once a significant snowfall has accumulated, standby personnel are called in and plow trucks are dispatched to all Village maintained streets, municipal buildings and parking lots. Please be patient! One plowing cycle of a 2" to 4" snowfall takes approximately 6 to 7 hours to complete and conditions may necessitate reploving streets several times. Clearance in blizzard type conditions takes considerably longer. Priority is given to primary streets that handle volume traffic. Safety for motorists is the number one concern.

Your Cooperation is Appreciated!

You can help Public Works crews clear our roadways as quickly as possible by not parking cars on the street when snow removal operations are in progress.

Our Crews are trained and ready! A full scale plowing effort requires 30 or more trained and experienced crew members and up to 24 pieces of equipment to clear 500+ lane miles of roadway and 249 cul-de-sacs, alleys and dead-ends.

Snowfall Parking Restrictions

A snow emergency is usually declared if two or more inches of snow accumulates in a 24 hour period. After that, it is illegal to park on Northbrook streets until they have been cleared. If your vehicle is parked on the street blocking access for snow plows, a reasonable effort will be made to contact you. If this fails, your vehicle will be ticketed and towed. If you have any questions, please contact the Northbrook Police Department, 847 564-2060, ext.____. If your vehicle has become disabled, call 847 564-2060 to inform the police. ❁
