River Forest Village President Catherine Adduci Re-Elected IML Second Vice President

CHICAGO — The Illinois Municipal League (IML) elected new officers to lead the organization at its Annual Business Meeting, which was held on Saturday, September 26, at the Hyatt Regency Chicago.

The IML membership unanimously re-elected River Forest Village President Catherine Adduci to serve another one-year term as Second Vice President of the statewide association. Adduci has served on the IML Board of Directors since 2015 and was originally elected Second Vice President in 2019.

“I am excited to continue my work with mayors from across the state as Second Vice President of the Illinois Municipal League,” said Adduci. “I am proud of the work IML completed over the past year and look forward to continue using my role for the benefit of River Forest and all of the 1,298 cities, village and towns in Illinois.

Also elected during the Annual Business Meeting were Mayor Ricky J. Gottman of Vandalia as President and Mayor Julie Moore Wolfe of Decatur as First Vice President.

ABOUT CATHERINE ADDUCI

Catherine Adduci became River Forest Village President, the first woman elected to this leadership position, in 2013 and is currently serving in her second term. She was elected to a four-year term as village trustee in 2009 and was previously appointed clerk in 2007. She also serves on the executive and legislative committees of the West Central Municipal Conference. In 2014, Adduci received the “Mayor of the Year” award from the Illinois Crime Commission for making a difference in her community.

Adduci is a retired vice president and senior executive for Unisys Corporation, an international technology firm, where she worked for 33 years. Her senior executive expertise includes marketing and sales management, general management and operations, finance and human professional development.

ABOUT THE ILLINOIS MUNICIPAL LEAGUE

The Illinois Municipal League is the statewide association representing local communities throughout Illinois. Founded in 1913, IML has worked continuously for the benefit of all 1,298 municipalities in Illinois to provide a formal voice on matters involving common interests.
